File Edit View History Bookmarks Tools Help
"natio
Jan
Aug 2
Feb 28
Jan 20
Aug 2
Aug 3
Aug 2
https://www.newspapers.com/image/36
Find text on this page
The Herald-Palladium
Tue, Jan 04, 1944 · Page 1
Clip & more

Russian Army Rolling Across Old Pola

WEATHER FORECAST

Partly cloudy to cloudy tonight; snow flurries, colder Wednesday.

TEMPERATURES:

The News-Palladium

Michigan's Biggest Buy - - - For Reader And For Advertiser

BENTON HARBOR, MICH., TUESDAY, JANUARY 4, 1944 10 PAGES FOUR CENTS

Back the boys with war bonds!

FINAL EDITION

CAR CRASHES TAKE 2 MORE LIVES

Russians Surge Across Poland In Great Drive

Germans Abandon Huge Stores, Surrender By Hundreds

BY HENRY C. CASSIDY

Russians Reach Poland

U. S. Air Force Cripples Four Jap Warships

Down 33 Enemy Planes; Michigan Troops Hold Firm On Saidor

BY MORRIE LANDSBERG

Associated Press War Editor

Car Hits Tree; One Dead, Two Injured

Wreckage of an automobile in which James D. Creed, Kalamazoo labor organizer, was instantly killed early today. Creed's death occurred when the car struck a tree in front of the Dwight M. Ruth home at 782 Territorial road. Two other Kalamazoo men were critically injured.

Kalamazoo Man Killed Today On Territorial

Latest Victim Is James D. Creed; Theodore Eberhardt Dies

4

Auto Deaths In Berrien In 1944

City Manager Offers Budget

Only Slight Increase In Expenditures Needed

Bulgarian Situation Is Clouded

Mile And Half Advance Scored By Fifth Army

Gain Made As Bombers Rip Nazi War Plant At Villa Perosa

BY WES GALLAGHER

Ex-Paw Paw Man Gored By Bull, Dies

U. S. Indicts 30 For Sedition

Two Women And 28 Men Named In Charges

Invasion Coast Raked By Allie

Brammall Co. Chief Retires