

NJ Crashes: A Mid-Year Report

As of Aug 18, New Jersey State Police data has reported 350 traffic deaths in 2025, and is on pace for 648.

Among the victims were a four-year-old child struck and killed by a driver in Oakland, NJ and 71-year-old cyclist Wajih Abdul-Haqq, killed when an impaired 20-year-old driver struck another vehicle in Westfield, NJ. Both drivers walked away from the crashes. Union County Connects organized a memorial for Adbul-Haqq, including placing a ghost bike at the scene of the crash on Aug. 7, and a "quiet ride" on Aug. 17 in Elizabeth, which Paul Mickiewicz attended for NJBWC.

Car Crash Deaths: NJ ▾

Carlos Gomez memorial. Photo credit: Chris Nowell / Bergen Co. Complete Streets