

E-Bike Advocates at JC Rally Say State Back-Pedaling on Transit Safety

by Ron Leir

May 23, 2024 at 5:44 am EDT

Karin Vanoppen said she's been making e-bike deliveries in Jersey City and environs to be able to purchase health care.

A group of e-bike advocates assembled Wednesday at Jersey City's Exchange Place to air their grievances on a pending state bill that, they say, will unfairly undermine food delivery workers' livelihoods and safety.

Create a free account and read two articles a month!

Go here to create an account and stay informed by signing up for our FREE newsletters.

Get unlimited access to our unmatched coverage of Jersey City news, culture and events by subscribing here.

 Continue with Google

Or

Email Address

Continue

© 2026 JCityTimes.com

Powered by Newspack