Recent Updates and Next week actions:

Manhattan CB4 joined other Community boards in the Central Business District to send a letter to protest the pause of Congestion pricing.

There is a crucial Board meeting of the MTA on June 26th. Here is the schedule for showing up and speaking or the links to express your opinion on Congestion Pricing. We're calling on riders to turn out to Wednesday's MTA board meeting and Monday's committee meetings to testify and speak out about why we need #CongestionPricingNow! Governor Hochul needs to hear that riders won't stand by as the MTA is forced to cut back the investments we so desperately need to have reliable and accessible commutes!

Rally at Wednesday's board meeting! or use the same link to testify virtually from home.
